UM ART INSTRUCTOR
HAS JEWELRY IN UTAH SHOW

MISSOULA--

A University of Montana Art instructor has entered three personally-designed jewelry pins in the 1967 Intermountain Craft Exhibition at the Salt Lake Art Center, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Mrs. Maxine Blackmer, the art instructor, said the pins are cast abstracts which she made from silver and gold. The exhibition will be shown until Dec. 20 and is cosponsored by Utah Designer-Craftsmen and the Utah State Institute of Fine Arts.

Approximately 50 craftsmen from the intermountain area have work in the show.
